The splash guard is used to protect the surfaces and controls of the magnetic stirrer from deterioration that can be caused by spilled reagents. The splash guard can be easily removed for battery replacement.

PROCEDURE

1. Do NOT remove the four screws that secure the existing stirrer cover.
2. Remove adhesive from dots on underside of splash guard.
3. Place the splash guard on top of stirrer and press firmly.